

Ensured compliance

Adepto Technical Recruitment, a specialist engineering, manufacturing, and scientific recruitment consultancy, faced challenges in managing compliance documentation efficiently. Their manual compliance processes were complicated, which increased the potential for errors leading to potential compliance violations.

They sought a partner who could handle compliance checks thoroughly, taking away any concerns. PayStream's Candidate Screening service offers tailored solutions to address Adepto Technical Recruitment's specific needs.

Assured Compliance: PayStream's Candidate Screening software simplifies checks for both agencies and candidates. Outsourcing key aspects of the onboarding process to PayStream allows Adepto Technical Recruitment to stay compliant without burdening their team.

"Collecting compliance documentation was a very manual process and, simply put, we were concerned about missing things and falling on the wrong side of compliance legislation. We wanted to be able to outsource key aspects of the process, knowing that a compliant and thorough job would be done. Some areas, such as IDVT are more complex and nuanced than others, so being able to outsource these aspects definitely helps to keep us compliant".

Time Savings: Handing over the screening of candidates to PayStream saves Adepto Technical Recruitment time. Their team can focus on their core tasks whilst PayStream handles screening. PayStream's expert onboarding support team are available to answer any queries Adepto may have. The team is professional and friendly which has led to Adepto's positive experience with the service.

"The PayStream staff are very friendly and keen to help, and the service they are delivering is what we hoped it would be".

Dedicated Support: The heart of any successful partnership lies in exceptional customer service. PayStream's Candidate Screening team go beyond transactional interactions. When Adepto contact the team, they are met with a friendly reception. Whether it's a quick question or a complex issue, the team are available to assist.

"This is one of the strengths of PayStream. Staff are very friendly, professional and keen to help".

By partnering with PayStream, Adepto Technical Recruitment have transformed their compliance process. The agile, customer-centric approach of the Candidate Screening team makes them an invaluable extension of Adepto's own team, which Adepto would happily recommend to their contacts.
